

DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION STUDIES MASTERS & DOCTORAL WORKSHOP 2021

The Department of Information Studies invites postgraduate students to attend the three days M & D workshop. The workshop aims to capacitate students on approaches to consider while conducting research and give support during remote learning.

Target Audience	Postgraduate students & Researchers
Speaker	Prof OB Onyancha (University of South Africa); Prof T Kalusopa (University of Namibia); Dr M Shongwe (University of Cape Town); Prof JR Maluleka (University of South Africa); Prof DN Ocholla (University of Zululand); Library (N C. Mbali; Zanele C. Hadebe); Writing center (Ms. Y Mgobhozi)
Dates	22 to 24 June 2021
Time	08:45 – 14:30
Venue	Microsoft Teams
Link	Click here to join the meeting

KEY FOCUS AREAS:

- Proposal writing
- The difference between Qualitative, Quantitative & Mixed methods research: - why it matters
- 'Researching for impact: a post-graduate student's blueprint'
- Choosing a theoretical or conceptual framework in postgraduate studies'
- Academic writing skills
- Publishing from thesis and dissertation
- Endnote, ORCID, academic social networks like Research gate
- Ethical considerations

HOW TO BOOK YOUR SEAT?

Enquiries may be directed to Ms. LP Luthuli on 035 902 6810/
NgidiL@unizulu.ac.za

NOTE:

You are all welcome to join the workshop.

MY UNIZULU.YOUR UNIZULU.OUR UNIZULU

UNIVERSITY OF ZULULAND