

ACADEMIC WEEK

27 SEPTEMBER 2021 -1 OCTOBER 2021

The purpose of Academic Week is to engage staff, students, and other stakeholders of the learning and teaching initiatives as well as projects focused on strategic imperatives. Each faculty will showcase their learning and teaching strategies used within the respective disciplines. This initiative will inform the university community of the strategies that stand out from each faculty, in order to learn from each other and adopt those strategies that prove to work most effectively.

KEY FOCUS AREAS:

- Insights into learning and teaching, including teaching innovations
- Academic support in remote learning and teaching environment
- Alternative forms of assessments in online learning environments
- Developing first-year students for the 21st century
- Student engagements, talents, creativity and success
- Entrepreneurship: Student packaging and individual branding
- Scholarship of engagement
- Curriculum transformation and renewal
- Virtual reality
- Academic Projects and their impact on teaching and learning
