

Engineering Bursary Opportunity At SARF

Closing Date: 31 Aug, 2022

Bursary Details

The South African Roads Federation (SARF) is inviting students to apply for their Study Bursary, for the 2023 academic year.

Each year, the SARF awards bursaries for studies in disciplines within the road transport sector.

Bursaries will be awarded for Undergraduate and Postgraduate studies, within these fields:

- Road Safety Engineering
- Road Transport Economics
- Road Transport Management
- Road Engineering (Civil Engineering / Traffic Engineering/ Bridge Engineering/ Pavement Engineering/ Transportation Planning/ Construction Materials/ Storm Water/ Environment/ Construction Management)

Candidate Requirements

- ID document (certified copy)
- Grade 11 year end results (certified copy)
- Matric certificate (certified copy)
- Most recent tertiary results (on institution letterhead)

Application Form (attached)
SARF-Bursary-Grant-application-form.pdf

South African Road Federation Head Office

– Hand delivery:

South African Road Federation
48 Gladiator Street
Rhodesfield
Kempton Park
1619

– Post:

P O Box 8379
Birchleigh
1621